Champagne (Bottle)

SC18 De Nauroy Brut France

Sparkling wine can only be called Champagne if it's made in the Champagne region in France. This Champagne has intense apple and citrus fruit with a hint of creamy, biscuity flavours and lots of fine, delicate bubbles. £49.00

EB17 Mumm Cordon Rouge France

The word "Brut" tells us that the Champagne is dry and this is a common style for most Champagnes. The red sash ("Cordon Rouge") imitates the Legion d'Honneur, the highest French civilian distinction, created by Napoleon I. The champagne has aromas of grapefruit and white peach with lovely honeyed notes. £59.00

EC18 Mumm Cordon Rose France

Each brand of Champagne is unique as they all have a distinct style which is consistent from one year to the next. This rosé Champagne from the Mumm house has luscious aromas of summer fruits with a hint of vanilla and caramel. £70.00

WB17 Louis Roederer Brut Premier France

Sparkling wine can only be called Champagne if it's made in the Champagne region in France. The term 'pure brut' mean this Champagne has not had any sugar added to it prior to bottling. It has lovely refreshing, fruity flavours and lots of fine, delicate bubbles. £72.00

SB17 Louis Roederer Brut Rose France

Rosé Champagne is an irresistibly pretty drink and this one is no exception. It is a pale, delicate pink with masses of very fine bubbles. The quality of the bubbles is an indication of the finesse and quality of the wine. It has crisp raspberry and strawberry fruit flavours and aromas. £99.00

WB19 Dom Perignon France

On the nose, aromas of almond and powdered cocoa develop gradually into white fruit with hints of dried flowers. Classic toasted notes give a rounded finish and denote a fully realized maturity. On the palate, the wine instantly traces an astoundingly fine line between density and weightlessness. Its precision is extreme, tactile, dark and chiseled. The full taste lingers with the utmost elegance on a sappy, spicy note. £199.95
